PROCLAMATION

CARL B. STOKES
MAYOR

Designating the Week of April 20-26, 1969, as

"NATIONAL COIN WEEK"

WHEREAS, the American Numismatic Association and the Mail Order Coin Club, Inc., of Cleveland, a member club, have requested, that the week beginning April 20th to April 26, 1969, be designated as National Coin Week in Cleveland; and

WHEREAS, the American Numismatic Association and the Mail Order Coin Club, Inc., in recognition of the relation of our nation's coinage to its unfolding history through both the colonial and national periods, have chosen a most significant theme for this year's observance - "Coins -- Links in a Chain of Peace;" and

WHEREAS, from the earliest issue of coins by the colonies down to our day, American coins have borne on the obverse and reverse the historical engravings, symbols, mottoes, mint marks and dates that closely identified them with the history of time; and

WHEREAS, during this period, affiliated local Clubs of the American Numismatic Association and their individual members, will compete for awards by exhibits in stores, libraries, bands and public buildings and will conduct other constructive educational activities.

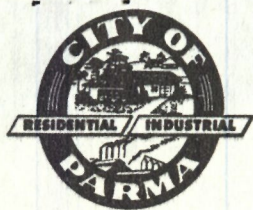

NOW, THEREFORE I, Carl B. Stokes, as Mayor of the City of Cleveland, Ohio, do hereby proclaim the week beginning April 20-26, 1969, as "NATIONAL COIN WEEK" in Cleveland, and call upon our citizens to respond during this period and co-operate with the leadership in the encouragement and promotion of display's and programs designed to interest and instruct young and old in the fascinating pastime or profession of coin collecting.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Corporate Seal of the City of Cleveland to be affixed this 18th day of April, 1969.
